

Rapport hebdomadaire des responsables de la maison

Weekly House Managers' Report

Pourquoi?

En tant que coordonnateur de projet, je n'ai pas l'occasion de venir chez vous souvent. La plupart des nouvelles concernant votre projet me parviennent de la part de votre agent(e) de projet. Ce rapport me permet de réfléchir aux choses que vous ressentez et de tracer un portrait juste à l'égard de la dynamique de groupe, ainsi que des activités du programme ou du travail. En tant que participants, vous faites beaucoup de travail chez Katimavik et ce rapport vous donne la chance de réfléchir à vos succès et aux possibilités d'apprentissage.

Merci de votre temps et de votre énergie! Au plaisir d'avoir de vos nouvelles! Je vais m'assurer de vous envoyer ma rétroaction ou mes questions dès que possible!

Why?

As your project coordinator, I don't have the opportunity to visit you often. Therefore, I get most of the news concerning your project from your project leader. This report gives me a chance to reflect on what you are feeling and get a clearer picture in terms of group dynamics, as well as program and work activities. As participants, you work hard at Katimavik and this report let's you reflect on your successes and learning opportunities.

Thanks for your time and energy. I look forward to hearing from you and will be sure to send you some feedback or any questions that I may have!

Comment et quand?

N'oubliez pas que remplir le rapport des responsables de la maison fait partie de leurs tâches, donc ils doivent contribuer ensemble aux réponses de ce rapport. Vous pouvez répondre en anglais, en français ou dans les deux langues!

Remplissez le document au cours de la semaine et envoyer le directement au CP [areid@katimavik.org] avant le vendredi soir de votre semaine comme responsables de maison. Tous les renseignements resteront confidentiels.

How and when?

Remember, filling out this report is a part of the house managers' responsibilities, so both of you must contribute! Please feel free to answer in either English, French or both! Fill in your answers during the week and send this report directly to your PC [areid@katimavik.org] no later than the Friday evening of your week as house managers. All information contained herein will be kept confidential.

Merci Beaucoup!

Qu'avez-vous le moins aimé en tant que responsables de maison cette semaine?

What was the worst thing about your week as house managers?

1. My worst thing was the day that I found out that Annie doesn't love me. It affected me and crushed my spirit and I felt like I couldn't go on but one by one each person got home and I kept asking them if they loved me and most of them said yes. But not all of them 2. Also this is my last time I am house manager and also the last week in the house and I felt drained, it felt like I could do nothing to make the house look clean, there was stuff everywhere and clothes not in drawers, and no drawers to put clothes in and we were losing furniture and we had to donate Dani's favourite armchair and Antoine's favourite coffee table so I felt bad when they got off of work and they were not there and I cried myself to sleep knowing that they hate me forever for doing that job but it is not my fault, we had to do it to clean the house, I think I washed the walls with my tears more than water, and I also had to stripped the bed and now they have to sleep in their sleeping bags on the bed that I tore down that is on the cold hard floor!!!!!!! And now Bill has to deal with me and that is a hard job for a house manger to deal with and it makes me feel so bad. Bill thinks I'm going emo and it is depressing me even more knowing that he thinks I worship Satan and drink goat blood. I was also on my period this week and I thought it was strange but all the girls said it was normal to have your period and then we laughed and ate chocolate ice cream that we bought together with our $21 we	5. Dealing with Kevin. Enough said.

get from Katimavik. 3. Also I tried to get ahold of the egg woman that sells us eggs but she never answered her *ing phone so we had to wait a few days just to get our *ing eggs from this lady but who cares because we get a good deal from this lady and the eggs are good. 4. I was also doing the laundry and I burnt one of the houses quilts and I felt like it was my fault and I was so sad that everything was falling apart like my katima family.

 What did you enjoy most as a house managers?

1. I enjoyed having Bill around to help me out.	2. On Monday at 8:30 I woke up. This is an hour later than I usually wake up. Then I showered used the bathroom. Then I ate my breakfast which consisted of cereal and fruit. Then we loaded the van with recycling and left to go get groceries around 9:30. We also go to Extra Foods because it is cheaper than the other places. Anny drove, I rode shotgun and Kevin sat in the back crying and saying ``This the end! My Katima-family is falling apart! `` We finally got there around 10:45 and started loading up for the final week. Basically, everything you need to survive nuclear holocaust. Bengal lights we found out are also non-existent so Katimavik needs to update their forms. It took approximately 45 min for groceries. The check-out lady was really nice and we almost received a box of chicken for free but Anny caught it before we made off like bandits. Also we dropped a frozen compost bomb at the community garden. Then we went to Save-on foods to do recycling. It was fun to sort everything into different categories for the recycle people. Then we had lunch. Afterwards we started preparing for dinner which was ribs. After supper, we did a shutdown power hour. Also I made banana bread for a snack. On Tuesday, we stayed home and cleaned the house. Kevin made the Absolutely Best
--	---

Chocolate Chip Cookies ever! We cut up some fruit for a snack as well. In the afternoon we donated all our furniture to the Salvation Army or the dump. ☺ Kevin was very distraught with this and keep saying that Antoine and Dani would hate him for throwing their favourite pieces of furniture away. But I told him the next Katimavik Group will buy it back in July. ☺ Afterwards we came home and started preparing supper. Poutine and vegetables! Everyone was happy, that day. After supper was our last free time block, so Alexis and I went to the gym. I ran 5 km in 30 min and it felt so good, and I am happy with my progress in competency 5 and will continue to work on it when I go home.

On Wednesday, we had to go to our final work supervisor meetings in the morning. Also, I prepared some meat and vegetables for stew we were making for dinner, before we left. I was dropped off @ BBBSQ drank hot chocolate, had my meeting, and loaded the renew truck. Meanwhile, Kevin went to the SPCA and then got more groceries with Anny. I walked over to the QDA had my meeting and said goodbye. Then we met @ the fire just before lunch to clean the van inside and out with Alexis's help and Mr. Power Washer and Mr. Vaccum. We returned home to start washing house laundry, and finish making stew. Everyone ate dinner @ 5:30 pm. Sue from One world treasures came to pick us up @ 6:00 to go see the Music Man out at Kersly Theatre. The show was awesome! and reminded me again of how much I miss performing onstage, but Katimavik has helped me reassess what I direction I want to go in. And it will involve theatre. ☺

On Thursday, Anny was gone to PG to pick the van so I was home alone with just Kevin. He threatened to chain himself to the Katima-van when it was time to leave. I still think he is still recovering from Anny not loving him anymore. Watching his mood swings is highly entertaining. For 2

	days now he has been trying to get a hold of the egg lady, but she never answers the phone. He gets increasing frustrated with this. I talked to my mom for a bit about picking me up next week. Then we headed out to get rid of cardboard and deliver a “package” to Jami at the Friendship centre. We stopped @ Tim Horton’s and Subway for lunch and visited Caro at One World Treasures. I found a Chinese Zodiac card for me and Kevin brought a cook book and a yak sweater. Also, apparently there is a 13th zodiac sign as well. Meanwhile, at home laundry continued to wash and dry. WE came back home and cut up more fruit and cheese and crackers for a snack. About this time people started coming home. We were researching the new sign which inevitably led to talking about the apocalypse in 2012. Apparently we only have 666 days left until the end of the world. Kevin then looked up the 4 horsemen but could remember which colours meant which. Death, Famine, pestilence and plague but not necessarily in that order. Today we didn’t have to make dinner because we went to a French dinner across the street @ Ecole baker. So we headed over @ 5:30 and began helping out. Coincidentally, the lady organizing it was the same one who sells us eggs, her name is Rebecca. They fed us as well, tortitere and salad and vegan pea soup. Yummm, so good! Then we supervised kids watching a French movie and cleaned up the kitchen. The evening was fun and full of French. Bon apetit! Then we came home relaxed, prepared a meal for rotation camp and I watched an Action Movie with the guys called the Code starring Antonio Banderas & Morgan Freeman. Goods times!
	On Friday, we had our final presentation. It went well, Yay! Lots of food... ☺

Quel a été le plus grand défi du groupe cette semaine?

What was the group’s biggest challenge this week?

- Kevin’s and Bill’s opinion about this topic is different.
- To Kevin the biggest challenge was not what Bill said was the biggest challenge because Kevin has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Bill making his decision for him. So to Kevin the biggest challenge was

- getting the whole house to say “I love you Kevin” but I was unable to because Annie doesn’t like me for a strange reason.
- To Bill the biggest challenge was not what Kevin said was the biggest challenge because Bill has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Kevin making his decision for him. To Bill the group’s biggest challenge this week was dealing with Kevin.

Quelle a été la plus grande réussite du groupe cette semaine?

- Kevin’s and Bill’s opinion about this topic is different.
- To Kevin the greatest achievement was not what Bill said was the greatest achievement because Kevin has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Bill making his decision for him. So to Kevin was getting most of the house to say “I love you” minus Carly, Steph, et Annie
- To Bill the greatest achievement was not what Kevin said was the greatest achievement because Bill has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Kevin making his decision for him. So to Bill the biggest achievement was allowing Kevin to survive his last days in Katimavik!!!!

En quel élément de compétence le groupe a-t-il besoin de s’améliorer?

What competency element does the group need to work on?

- Kevin’s and Bill’s opinion about this topic is different.
- To Kevin the competency element was not what Bill said was competency element because Kevin has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Bill making his decision for him. To Kevin the group needs to work on competency 1 because they all need to love me as a group.
- To Bill the competency element was not what Kevin said was the competency element because Bill has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Kevin making his decision for him. To Bill the group needs to work on competency element number 5 because the girls and Kevin were crying and eating ice cream upstairs all week in preparation for the end. ☹

Quelle est la plus grande force du groupe?

What do you think the group is really good at?

Kevin’s and Bill’s opinion about this topic is different.

To Kevin the group is really good at was not what Bill said was the group is really good at because Kevin has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Bill making his decision for him. To Kevin the group is really good at saying “I love you” and giving me hugs and talking to me and eating ice cream☺

To Bill group is really good at was not what Kevin said was the group is really good at because Bill has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Kevin making his decision for him. To Bill the group is really good at making Kevin feel loved.

Comment ça va avec votre agent(e) de projet?

How are things going with your project leader?

Kevin’s and Bill’s opinion about this topic is different.

- To Kevin the project leader was not how Bill said the project leader was because Kevin has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn’t like Bill making his decision for him. To Kevin the project leader doesn’t love him and is

- playing a sick joke on him because she thinks it is funny and doesn't want to say the truth in front of Kevin but Kevin knows she loves him!!!!
- To Bill the project leader was not how Kevin said the project leader was because Bill has a mind of his own and likes to think for himself and doesn't like Kevin making his decision for him. To Bill the project leader is doing just fine and Kevin is just delusional.
